

The Trans Pennine Trail

Shining light from East to West,
Link from sea to sea.
Tightrope walk across the North
Bringing you to me.

Following the sun across the sky
From Dawn to evening sea;
Lifeline, heartline on the hand of The North
Bringing you to me.

Summer, Autumn, Winter, Spring
Seasons turn from sea to sea.
Frozen puddles, baking track
Bringing you to me.

Celebrate the Trans Pennine Trail
Open your eyes to see
A plan, a dream, a walk, a ride
Through urban sites and countryside
A source of country-crossing pride
Bringing you to me:
Here's to the TPT!
